The main building houses classes, club, and coffee rooms, library, and offices.

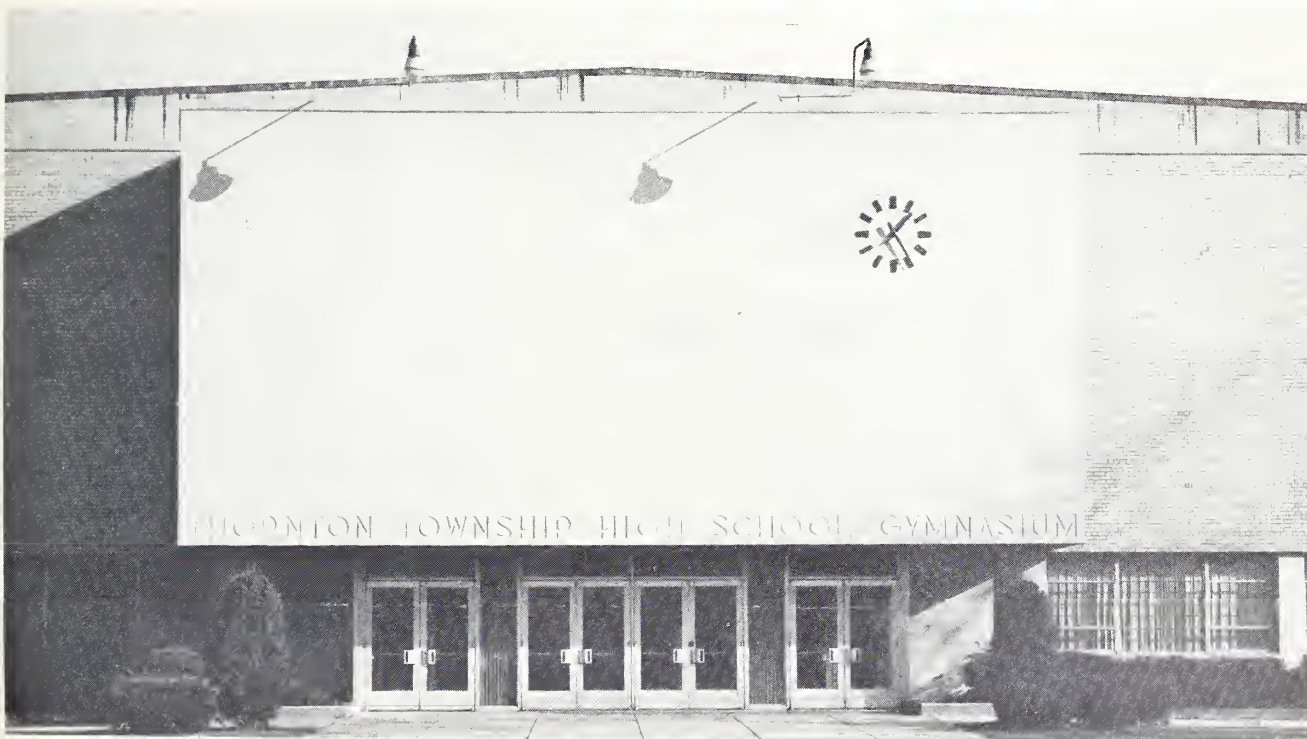

To promote the growing interest in higher education, Thornton Township established a junior college in Harvey, Illinois, in 1927. Originally Thornton Junior College enrolled forty-seven students and occupied a small section of the high school building. As the years passed, the facilities expanded to include the two annexes as well as the physical education program in the two gymnasiums. Through the years the college has grown, both in curriculum and in the student body, for today TJC accommodates many times the original number of students.

Annex C is the newest Addition.

Annex B is familiar to every TJC student.

The New Gym, a strikingly handsome home for TJC athletics and activities.

T.J.C.

The Coed Club Room represents a home away from home for TJC women. To this room come those who have a bit of chattering to do, some homework to be finished, a yen for the stereo, or just a desire to curl up in a corner with shoes off. This year the room has been redecorated; the chairs and couches have been reupholstered, and the walls were repainted. On the bulletin board sororities keep in touch with their members, personal notes are pinned, and Coeds keep track of current and future events.

SOCIETY

The Annex C. Lounge has a quality of its own, unlike that of either the Coed Club Room or the Union Room. Rather, it is a blend of both, for the lounge is generally quieter than the Union Room and lacks a stereo, but smoking is permitted. The students using this room find it a light and pleasant place to meet and talk over a cup of coffee. Government classes use the lounge for the occasional elections, and at such times the room is closed to regular traffic. Voting booths are set up as well as ballot boxes and posters of candidates.

To some the hub of the social universe is the Union Room, with its frankly bohemian flavor. In this usually well crowded room one can relax, enjoy the "home cooking" and view the latest paintings of TJC masters.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is the governing body established for TJC students, and as such it concerns itself with the ideas and problems of the student population. The solution of those problems is a part of the responsibility of the Student Council, as is the delegation of funds to the school clubs and organizations. In the school year the Student Council supports such activities as convocations, gym jams, the Homecoming Dance, and the Spring Prom. Regular meetings are held which are open to the public. The sponsors of the Student Council, Mr. Robert Owens and Mrs. Helen Fesler, have ably aided the group and have devoted much time and effort to its success.

Paul Lea, President; Marsha Swanson, Treasurer; Jim McClenahan, Vice President (Not Pictured Sharon Patten, Secretary)

GYM JAM

Gym Jams offer diversion to the otherwise serious-minded student body, a chance to relax away from the long hours over books. Here one can enjoy the luxury of a swim or perhaps a game of basketball or volleyball. The trampolines are always a focal point and occasionally there are some hair-raising stunts executed thereon.

The Men's Club, under the direction of Mr. Dale Helgesen, provides entertainment and social activities for the men at Thornton. The club sponsors Smokers, at which such movies as "Mr. Roberts" and "Destination Tokyo" are shown; the Mother-son Banquet; and the Sleighbell Ball, an annual semi-formal affair held this year on December 16 in the Louis XVI Room of the Shoreland Hotel with the music of the Star-Gazers. Each year elections are held for the club's officers, and this year Paul Lea was elected president, Dennis Gawlik became vice president, and Ed Pavlik was chosen secretary-treasurer.

COED

CLUB

COED CLUB OFFICERS: Sharon Patten, Secretary; Sandy Johnson, 2nd Vice President; Kathy Kiel, President; Pat Tanner, Treasurer; Karen Drefhall, Vice President

This compact little group represents the officers of the Coed Club. The club is open to all women students and is subdivided into seven sub-groups or sororities. As a member, each girl is assigned to a sorority in a solemn candlelight ceremony. The sororities each sponsor an activity such as teas or dinners. Of all activities, however, the annual Stagette dance in the spring represents the high point of the coed's calendar, for it is then that she asks "him" for the evening.

BOWLING CLUB

This year witnessed the return of the TJC Bowling League. While the attendance never reached the hoped-for proportions, those who came to Coral Lanes each Wednesday had a chance to improve their games in a friendly atmosphere. The officers elected for the 1961-1962 school year were Nancy Froschauer, President; Sharon Scholz, and Sandy Danrich.

DRAMA CLUB

Chuck Edelhofer, Judy Franklin, Norlaine Johnson

The TJC Drama Society reconvened this year under the sponsorship of Mr. Richard Pick. It is the purpose of the organization to acquaint student members with the several facets of the theater: acting, lighting, sound, sets, business, makeup, and costuming. The first production of the year was "The Crucible" by Arthur Miller. This power-packed play vibrated with tremendous vitality and deserves recognition as a superior piece of work. The Drama Club, at an early meeting, elected Norlaine Johnson president, Bob Jacobson vice-president, and Bill Burger secretary-treasurer.

A CLUB IS BORN

This fall, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Helen Fesler, a local chapter of the Student Education Association, a subdivision of the National Education Association (for teachers) was established at TJC. A fine response by future teachers was shown at the meetings, and the club soon got under way in earnest. At the first meeting Janet Lau was elected president; Jim Randolph, vice president; Elene Fetsis, secretary; and Joan Tennant treasurer.

MIXERS

The first social event of the year, the first in a succession of Mixers, was held on Saturday, September 23, in the Thornton Gym. The purpose of the dance was to let the new and older students get together and socialize. The theme of the mixer was "The School of Blissful Ignorance."

Approximately 100 students danced multiplication, mop dances, and other ice-breakers to the music of the Mustwangs. Everyone enjoyed the entertainment, too, a skit entitled "This is Your Strife, Joe College." Jon Tienstra, the M.C., brought forth the life story of one of the college's most popular past students, Joe College (played by Paul Nees).

For the past year the Thornton Junior College Concert Choir has been under the direction of Miss Goldie Cochrane, a graduate of TJC and Northwestern University. At the December convocation the chorus provided a medley of music for the Christmas season, and in the spring of 1962 the group presented on two nights a program of varied musical treats. While the chorus is not the largest of its kind, it is one of the finest musical groups ever heard at TJC.

The Courier

Every other Friday for the past year has been punctuated by the distribution of the "Courier", the official college newspaper sponsored by Mr. John Stanfield at TJC. Late news, calendars of future events, pictures, editorials, feature stories, sports news, and cartoons have appeared for the last year in the Courier, which is sponsored by Mr. John Stanfield. Terry Peters and Hal Schroeder have served as editors-in-chief, and though it is not widely known, the staff of the newspaper comes some nights to work late on the latest edition of the paper in the journalism office. There have been times when the pressure of work has caused tempers to wear thin and there have been times when criticisms roll in, but through it all the Courier and its staff have borne the difficulties and have come through on top. The Courier is a fine paper, a fact of which the student body is well aware.

The Caldron staff, under the sponsorship of Mr. Roy Swanberg has, during the past year, created this chronicle of life at Thornton Junior College in the school season of 1961-62. By this time our work is done, and it's with mixed feelings that we submit it to your keeping; after seeing it in pieces and parts for so long, we are as curious as you and even amazed to see it in its completed form. We do hope you like the finished product.

L' Alliance Francaise

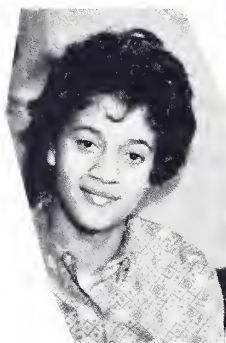

The French Club, sponsored by Miss Florence Wunderlich, is composed of the members of first and second year French Classes. Through the media of imagination, study, pictures, and of course, usage of the language, French students travel to France and become acquainted with the brilliant and every day sides of Gaulic life. Comprehension of the French language leads to an appreciation of the people and their culture that is in reality a wider understanding of the world.

The German Club, sponsored by Miss Jeannette Hills, is the organization whose purpose is to acquaint Americans with Germany and German-speaking peoples through language. From the first day of the first year to the last day of the final year, German students are faced with work in a sister language to our own English. The German Club, Der Deutsche Verein, is the social group for members of the German classes and combines fun and informality to the more serious study of German.

Spanish

Skip Herr, President.

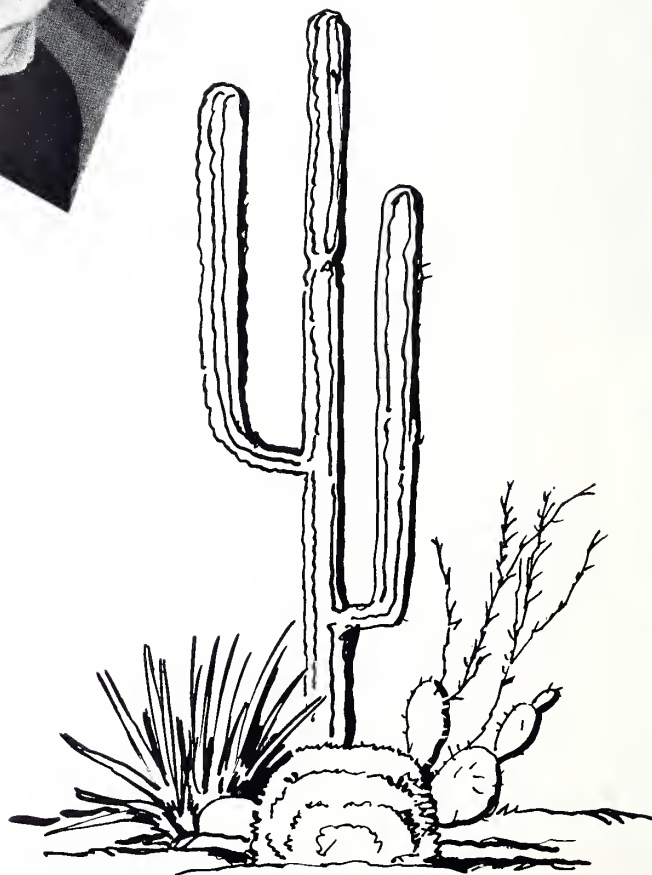

Tharon Nylander, Vice President.

Ron Pritchard, Secretary treasurer.

Senor Joseph Silva's Spanish classes comprise the body of the Spanish Club at Thornton Junior College. Both the first and second year classes are occupied with the intensive study of Spanish and Latin American peoples, countries, and language. Each student is striving for facility and aptitude in Spanish, a strange, wild and beautiful language. The United States' relations with other North American, Central American, South American, Asian, and European countries depend not insignificantly on the ability to speak and think in the language of the people. The Spanish classes are preparing Americans to reach this cultural objective.

The master of ceremonies, Skip Herr (Spanish Club), and assistant Mike Flick "broadcast" the program over "station WTJC."

The Union Room was the scene of the foreign language clubs' Christmas Party, "International Holiday." Club members joined in singing carols of France, Germany, and Spain, giving the party the real spirit of Christmas.

One of the highlights of the event was the presence of Mrs. Santa Claus, who rushed from the North Pole to sub for husband who got lost on the way. Mrs. Santa distributed gifts for one and all in the time honored custom of gift-giving.

The French Club presented a puppet show, "Little Red Riding Hood" in French. The German Club gave a skit entitled "Schneeweitchchen Und Der Seven Dwarfen." The finale of the party was the destruction of a candy-filled piñata and the special prize of two theater tickets for "Sound of Music."

Elene Fetsis, with her "brief notes", narrated the story of the fable Little Red Riding Hood.

HOMECOMING

NOVEMBER

Hmmm, What's Gloria McCormick thinking?

The warm music of Lane Emery was heard on November 4, 1961, at the annual Homecoming Dance presented by the Student Council. Dancing paused for the ceremonious coronation of the Homecoming Queen and King for 1961. Last year's royalty, Lou Hanacek and Judy Masters, handled the award and this year's king and queen were announced: Sharon Scholz and Milt Marley.

From the first practice in August to the last game in November, the Bulldogs had three challenges to meet. The first was mental; the game of football had to be learned. The squad spent hours looking at game movies, listening to "Chalk Talks," and studying offensive and defensive maneuvers. The second was physical; the players had to develop a top physical condition. This was accomplished on the practice field. The third was emotional; the legend of Thornton football had to be proved. This could not be done. The Bulldogs finished second in conference play to Joliet. Next year there will be a greater challenge to meet; The Bulldogs will have to prove themselves to be true champions. They'll have to demonstrate their ability to come back. The last game in 1961 (Thornton 31-Morton 0) shows the Bulldogs have the ability and desire to come back.

BASKETBALL

While the record for the basketball season resulted in 9 wins and 12 losses, the beginning of the season showed bright promise for a fine winter. During the first games Thornton's team exulted with a 7 win-3 loss record but with the loss of several players, the record sagged somewhat during the last half of the year. Even so, the games lost were often lost by a very narrow margin.

Pat Renstrom tests the bow with Miss Begnoche's approval.

In this era of push buttons, electric can openers and exercisers, automatic television tuners, and even automatic toothbrushes, there is a need in America to pay attention to its physical fitness, and here at TJC this emphasis doesn't just apply to the men. Women's gym courses include swimming, fencing, dancing, sports, and trampoline, and four hours of physical education credit are needed for graduation from the college.

Mr. Robert Anderson, Dudley Hopkins, Larry Stone, Norbert Loose, Dale Vraney

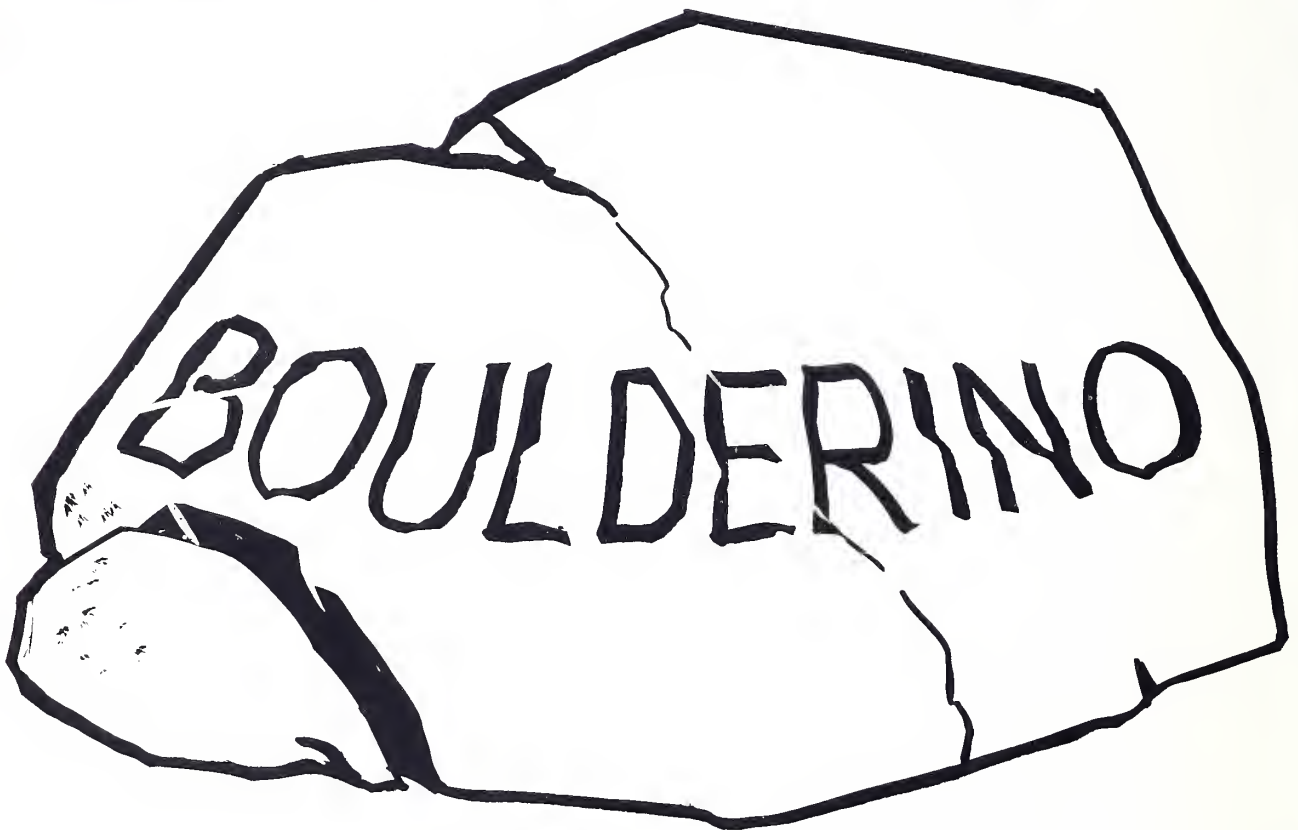

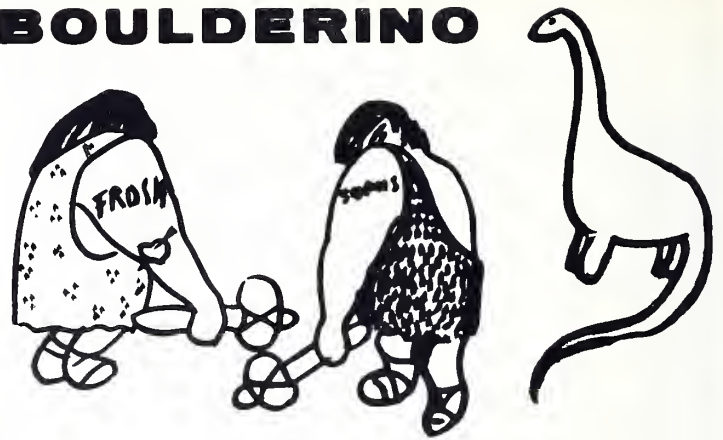

For men whose athletic tastes extend to sports other than football and basketball, the baseball, golf, tennis and track teams exist. Mr. Robert Anderson, business and physical education teacher, coaches the golf and tennis teams; Mr. John Carlson directs the TJC baseball team; and Mr. Pete Schloss is in charge of the track team which is formed in the spring.

TJC's tombstone territory (the Union Room) comes complete with its own fragment of Boot Hill, the grave stone.

BOULDERINO

A grave stone in the Union Room? Of course; it's the trophy won in the annual battle between the freshmen and sophomore men. It all started about five years ago when the two classes decided to find out which was the stronger. A tug of war was suggested, but no ordinary tug of war; this one would include a creek between incumbents. Then, following the great battle, the survivors plus the spectators picnicked and dried out after the douse.

The following year a giant boulder was towed in front of the Annex C by some anonymous students. Boulderino, as it was named, was to become the victory award to the winning class. At first plans were made to chisel the winning team and year on the rock, but for convenience the grave stone was substituted and brought upstairs. The original and only Boulderino lies inconspicuously by Annex C, somewhat worse for wear due to an inconsiderate paint job.

LAMBDA EPSILON

Lambda Epsilon, the Junior College honor society for scholastic achievement, was organized to recognize those students whose work is superior. What a thrill it is to be awarded membership at the beginning of the second semester. To be elected, one must maintain an average of 37 or more honor points per semester. Honor points are earned on the following scale:

an "A" earns three honor points

a "B" earns two honor points

a "C" earns one honor point

a "D" or an "E" earns no honor points

Thus, for an "A" received for a three-hour course at the end of the semester would result in nine honor points.

SLEIGHBELL BALL

PRESENTED THE

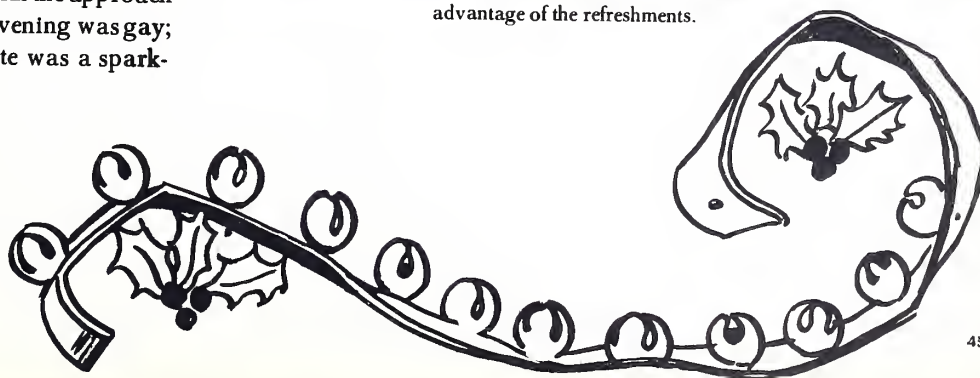

BY MEN'S CLUB

The annual Men's Club Dance, the Sleighbell Ball, was held this year in the Louis XVI room of the Shoreland Hotel on December 4, 1961. This was the fellows' chance to take that special girl to a really special dance. With the approach of the Christmas holidays, the evening was gay; and all in all this December fete was a sparkling success.

Sherron McCoy and Ron Heath take advantage of the refreshments.

John Lau and Sharon Szlaus are greeted by Diane Tromp.

THE STAGGETTE

"If Dreams Came True"

March 31 was a brisk clear night, a fine evening for the Staggette Dance, "If Dreams Come True," which was held this year in the Crystal Ballroom of the Del Prado Hotel. The music was provided throughout the evening by Lane Emery and his band. The charming grand march broke the ice, and everyone danced until the 11 o'clock coronation, the high point of the night. Sharon Patten, mistress of ceremonies, introduced the 1962 Staggette Court and last year's sweetheart, Roselee Baer who announced the royalty for 1962. Marsha Swanson was named Maid of Honor and received the rose "scepter." Sweetheart of 1962 is Kathy Hathaway, and a smiling Roselee placed the pink rose crown on the head of the new sweetheart.

STAIRWAY TO THE STARS

On June 3, 1961 the Student Council presented "Stairways to the Stars," the annual spring prom, held last year in the Crystal Ballroom of the Windermere East Hotel in Chicago. As we entered upon that night of magic we saw and joined the couples dancing to the smooth strains of music by Tony Marterie and his orchestra. On we danced, stopping only for the timely refreshments served in the East Lounge and a talk with friends and teacher who had come. To sum up the whole evening, this poem, adapted from the bid, can best express the night.

"Stairway to the Stars"

*Up the stairway to the stars
We climbed with joy that night
For hours of sweet happiness
And silver-star delight.*

*Enchanting music soft and gay
Enhanced our lovely dream;
And when they played our "favorite song,"
The moment was supreme.*

*As starlight faded from the sky
And we were homeward bound,
We dreamed of all the many treasured
Moments that we found.*

Here they come!

The big night finally came on June 6, 1961, for last year's sophomores. Graduation ceremonies added a touch of reality and finality to Junior College days for those honored. Some graduates have gone on to other colleges and universities; some have found jobs in industry, business, and teaching fields; and some have married, but all will carry with them memories of the days spent at Thornton Junior College. It had been work to get to graduation day, but there were times of relaxation and fun. Remember Boulderino, the Staggette, the play? Remember the teachers and friends met and made? These are just a few of the memories that become a part of every Thornton graduate.

Dr. Frank N. Philpot, professor of education at Illinois State Normal University, spoke as guest lecturer. Then came the climax of the evening—Dr. J. D. Logsdon presented the long-sought-for diplomas to the graduates. As the sophomores filed across the stage, how glad they must have felt and how proud and beaming were their parents.!

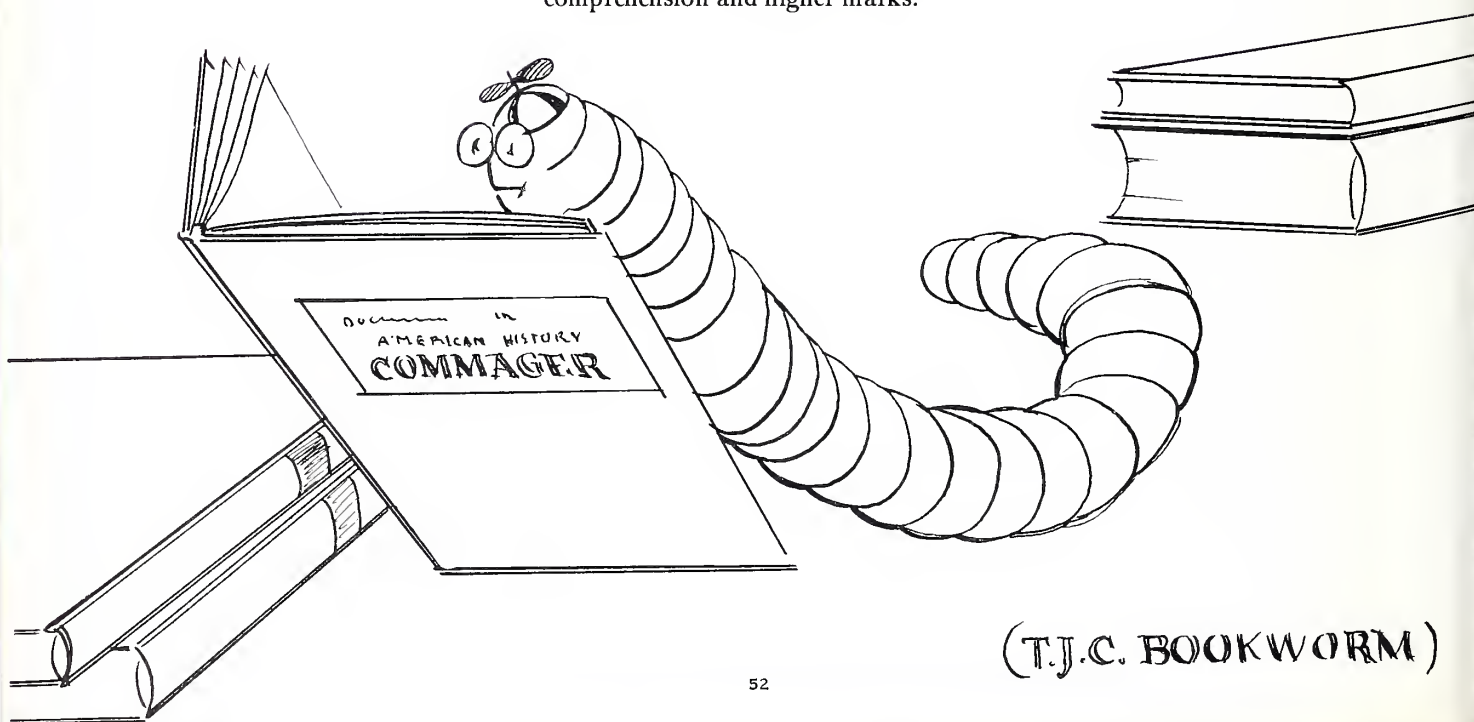

The big moment for Judy Morris.

THE LIBRARY

Into the stillness of the library comes the cream of the student crop at TJC. Those who have found the value of extending their studies with collateral readings find their reward in better comprehension and higher marks.

(T.J.C. BOOKWORM)

With the aid of our librarians, Miss Halverson and Mrs. Ring, Thornton students find that the library holds the key to a successful college career. Our library serves the student body every day of the week through a course of various and sundry media, from encyclopedias to magazines, clippings, and topical files. The major aim of the staff is to aid and assist all students to a high quality education through wider reading, and if a student will carefully take advantage of the fine facilities of the library, he will discover soon that he has a head start on almost any course he will take in his college future.

BUSINESS MANAGER

Mr. J.A. Peterson is the business manager of both Thornton Junior College and Thornton Township High School. In a plant as large as that represented by the two student bodies and both sets of faculties, someone has to keep "law and order" over the business aspects, and that someone is Mr. Peterson. Faculty and personnel must be paid, records must be kept, and myriads of other chores must be handled by Mr. Peterson and his staff.

Left Mr. B. Evans, school attorney;
Right A. Waldschmidt, township treasurer.

Dr. J. D. Logsdon

Thornton Junior College has been fortunate to have as its superintendent for the last five years Dr. J. D. Logsdon. Dr. Logsdon, who has travelled widely in recent years, is perhaps best known among J. C. students for his anecdotes and sketches of his travels, but his work involves more than just the light side we see when Dr. Logsdon speaks to us. With both J. C. and high school administration he is busy, but he is also current president of the National Association of Secondary School Principals which takes another large slice of his time.

Dr. Logsdon received a B. Ed. degree from Illinois State Normal University and his M. A. and Ph. D. degrees from the University of Chicago.

Dean Lee Dulgar

For another year Thornton Junior College has been served by its dean, Mr. Lee Dulgar. Dean Dulgar has been the head of TJC for five years, during which time the student body has come to rely on his guidance and advice. Students stop by the office to talk to Dean Dulgar about school work, post J. C. days—or, if he isn't busy, (which isn't often), just to chat. Dean Dulgar received his B. Ed. degree at Eastern Illinois University and his M. A. degree from Northwestern University.

WELCOME, MISS CHILDS

This was the first year that Miss Adelaide Childs has been Dean of women at Thornton Junior College, but Miss Childs has, from the girl's point of view, done a wonderful job. One of the nicest parts of the orientation of every freshman girl is her personal interview with Miss Childs, an interview that really helped each freshie to feel at home in the strange new ways of college life. It's a comfort to know there's someone to whom one can go with her problems, and that someone is the Dean of Women.

Freshmen, however, aren't the only ones who realize her presence. Sophomores too like to come to Miss Childs with ideas, suggestions, or the perennial problems that spring up in the course of human events. To the sophomore women, who have proudly known Miss Childs a longer time, there goes a feeling of friendship with the Dean of Women. It's a time tested friendship that each sophomore woman will carry with her throughout her life.

Diane Banovich, secretary treasurer of the freshman class
 Russ Blais, president of the freshman class

FRESHMAN CLASS

"Friendly," "energetic," and "responsible" are a few of the adjectives that can describe this year's Freshman Class, a group which brought new life and exuberance to the school. From the start it was apparent that this was no ordinary class; it seemed to have a bursting vitality that swept up everything in its path and gave it new spirit. The Freshman Class has shown throughout the school year a sparkling quality of excitement that was contagious and is sure to leave its mark on the history of the college.

THE FRESHMAN HONOR ROLL

One of the greatest honors for any student is to find his name listed on the honor roll. There are two honor rolls at this college that divide the academically high students into two ranks. First is the honor roll which recognizes students with a 2.0 to 2.499 grade average, which to the layman represents about a "B" average. Freshmen earning this honor in the fall 1961 semester are the following:

Kenneth Dahlberg
Margaret Fierke
Dorothy Howell
Orrell G. Kauffman
Richard Krull
Ann Lambert
Carl Lindstrom
Marlene Lusin
Bonnie Short
Frank H. Nuessel

The highest honor roll accepts students with a grade average of from 2.5 to 3.0, which is about an "A" average. The students of the freshman class who were eligible for this distinction are the following:

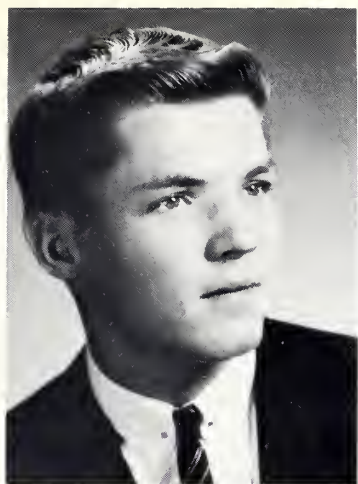

Diane Banovich
Robert Barker
Adelle Cook
Cheryl Dado
Noreen Deal
Susan DeBoer
Daniel DeFrank
Allen Dehnert
James Dimmock
Charles Higgins
John Kwasny
Shirly Maina
Dieter Meister
Lorraine Moore
John Smart
Wayne Tellis
Robert Titus
Sandra Shackleton

SOPHOMORES

Right: Jean Bossard, Sophomore Class Secretary

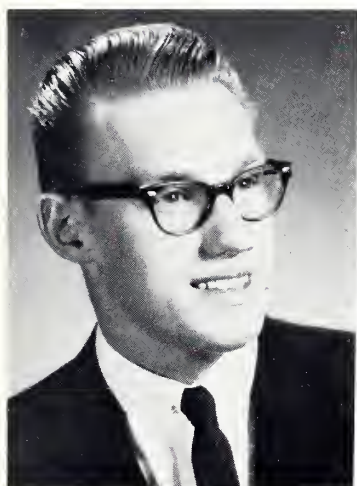

The Sophomore Class of 1962 is composed of men and women with their eyes on the future. Each sophomore is searching for his place in the world, and each hopes that through his education he will find it—as many before him have found their places. The future is bright with hopes, but each sophomore knows there's a lot to be done and a lifetime of work before him. Time seems to have disappeared so rapidly it's really hard to believe. The two years have suddenly dissolved into the past tense. Now, as they leave, graduates can survey those years and be proud of them, for they were good years.

The honor roll is a record of the names of those students whose grades have averaged "B" for a semester. To maintain a position on it, a student must earn that average for each semester. Anyone who does receive a "B" average for work will be included in this listing.

In the same fashion the high honor roll records the names of those who have managed to earn an "A" average for a semester's work. These students too must maintain that average for each semester on the high honor roll. A place on the high honor roll is one of the most coveted achievements for the student at Thornton Junior College.

Freshies Bunny Stephenson, Diane Shapiro, and Jan Rossate

For the women at TJC, the 1961-62 school year started out on a cheery fun note with the Freshman women wearing Mu-mus, night caps, curlers, odd sox, and carrying their books in shopping bags. Catcalls and whistles resounded through the halls as the red-faced girls raced to their classes.

Here are some mu-mu maidens, Patricia Kroll, Rosan Schemensky, and Karen Nelson

Then, when the newness of school had worn off somewhat, the election for student government representatives was held in the Annex C lounge. Miss Marie Weis' political science students officiated during the voting.

FACULTY TEA

The Coed Club is divided into sororities, as you know, and it was Beta Sorority's pleasure to fete the faculty and administration of Thornton Junior College and the two high schools. Mr. O.W. Renfrow, principal of Thornton Township High School, Mr. Harold Sutter, principal of Thornridge High School, Dean and Mrs. Dulgar, and Miss Adelaide Childs were among the guests attending the Faculty Tea held on October 17, in the Coed Club Room. The theme was "An apple for the Teacher." The chairmen, under the direction of sorority leader Bonnie Gruett, were Diane Tromp, refreshments; Barbara Kletecka, publicity; Pat Dutell, decorations; and Kay Barnhill, invitations.

Sandy Johnson, Dean Dulgar, Mr. Murray Wolfson, Mr. Harold Sutter, Pat Dutell, Mr. John Stanfield

Miss Florence Wunderlich, Mr. O.W. Renfrow, Susan DeBoer

On November 21, 1961, the Alpha Sorority presented a truly coed tea, "Turkey in the Straw." It was the only Coed Club presentation during the year, except the Stagette, of course, to which the fellows were invited. Angie Sarenny, Alpha's sorority leader, directed the tea.

Ron MacDonald, Marcia Davis, Dale Kuypers, Sandy Kamrath, Linda Thulin, Don Perry, Beth Edmunds, Harry Baker

Seated: Pat Sears, Kathy Hathaway, Larry Kaiser,
Standing: Jim Barr, Kathy Kiel, Paul Lea

Cynthia Poli, and Marsha Swanson wait impatiently for Santa in "The Night Before Christmas," a skit given at the Christmas Dinner.

Zeta sorority sponsored the Christmas Dinner given on December 13, in the TTHS cafeteria. Linda Jensen was the general chairman, and she was aided by Linda Myers, Bonnie Short, Connie Miller, and Cynthia Poli. Everyone was in a merry mood, awaiting the big moment when Santa Claus would rush in, bringing presents from the North Pole. A skit based on the night before Christmas was presented; Gerry Zboreak danced; and a trio composed of Connie Miller, Era Wheeler, and Charmaine Carlson sang. Later on the evening ended with the singing of Christmas Carols.

Charmaine Carlson, Connie Miller, and Era Wheeler serenade the Coed Club members and their guests.

On November 3 a pep rally was held to electrify the morale of TJC fans for the Homecoming game on November 4, in which we were to play Grand Rapids. Coach Pete Schloss spoke and introduced the football team players, one by one. Miss Allen also spoke, and the cheerleaders led in some Thornton cheers. As an extra treat the Mustangs played some swinging hits to really rally the assembly.

C O N V O C A T I O N

Autumn was over with a roar, and the winter blasted down from the north, bringing snow and cold to the campus. Hardy, red-nosed students, buffeted by the wind and cold, tramped to and from the annexes. Boots and heavy clothing were "a la mode."

At the end of January final examinations took place. English, history and science course tests were held in the cafeteria. Silence filled the hall as over two hundred people thought and wrote. Smaller classes used the facilities of Annex C and Annex B classrooms for the exams. Then finally it was over, and there was a fresh new semester to conquer.

One way to keep warm in the winter is to push out a stuck car from a snow drift.

DAD-DAUGHTER BANQUET

Miss Adelaide Childs, Mr. Clarence DeYoung, Kay DeYoung, Kathy Kiel, and Mr. Henry Kiel sat at the speakers' table.

It was the great pleasure of each coed to treat her own "Big Daddy" to dinner at the Father-Daughter Banquet, held this year at Cavalini's Restaurant. The banquet featured a delicious family style dinner, good company, and choice entertainment.

Sandy Johnson and Bunny Stephenson, the tennis champs.

Connie Miller and Sue Schudt meet while a-fishin'.

Seated: Mr. T.B. Huddleston; Mr. L. Boudreau; Dr. J.D. Logsdon; Mr. W. Summers, president of the Harvey Kiwanis, Mr. O.W. Renfrow

Standing: Mr. P. Schloss, TJC coach; Mr. R. Blaha; Mr. J. Keane; Dean Dugar; Mr. W. Brown; Mr. R. Bruno; Mr. J. Benedetto

Mr. Louis Boudreau speaks to the assembled sportsmen.

The Harvey YMCA was the scene of the Harvey Kiwanis Club banquet to honor the football players of TJC and TTHS early in December. Guest speaker was to have been Mr. Rick Cesares of the Chicago Bears; however, he had been injured in a football game the previous Sunday and was unable to attend. Mr. Louis Boudreau and Mr. William Summers were speakers.

THIEVES' CARNIVAL

The real "thieves" (Bill Burger, Skip Herr, and Jerry Miller) concoct a plot to get rich quick.

Seated: Sue Griffin, Kiiri Tamm, Allan Forsyth. Standing: Carol Diekelman, Bruce Hedlund, Jerry Miller, Skip Herr.

"Thieves' Carnival," a veiled grin at life by Jean Anouilh, was presented by the Thornton Junior College Drama Society on February 16-17, 1962. From the time the bell ringing watchman clanged down the aisle at the start until the lights went on at the end, "Thieves' Carnival" was truly an enjoyable production. The play, set in Paris during the 1920's, dealt with a multiple theme of boredom disillusionment, cynicism, larceny, and love.

Joan Behrens and Sandy Shackleton help prepare the sets.

MADE IN AMERICA :

A Better Way of Living

The proudest product of America bears no trade mark--no price tag.
All of us help to make it. All of us share it.
It is a way of living that you can best evaluate in terms of your own life.
The opportunity to produce more, earn more, have more, enjoy more.
Yes, it means all of that . . . plus some other things even more precious.

The right to worship God in your own way.
The right to make up your own mind on any subject
Whatsoever and freely to speak it.
The opportunity to know the truth.
The right to choose your own work or to build your own business.
The opportunity to go as far as your own ability and effort will take you--in a direction that you choose for yourself.
And this above all: the right to walk in dignity and personal security for all the days of your years.

Nowhere else on earth will you find anything quite like the way of living that is "MADE IN AMERICA". Accept no substitutes!
